Purpose & Objectives

PURPOSE: To bring together individuals from Nebraska and surrounding States who are interested in promoting optimal immunization levels that will eliminate vaccine preventable diseases throughout the lifespan of all persons.

OBJECTIVES: At the end of this program, the participants should be able to:

- Discuss how to talk to hesitant parents, common inquiries about the vaccination process, vaccine myths and current recommendations
- Explain the tendency for people to accept anecdotal experiences as indicative of causal relationships
- Develop strategies to counteract thought patterns that lead to vaccine hesitancy and maintain high immunization rates despite pervasive anti-vaccinationism
- Describe vaccine best practices and state at least 3 strategies to prevent common vaccine administration errors
- Locate resources related to vaccine administration best practices
- Review the routine childhood immunization schedule for 2017
- Discuss current controversies in vaccine safety
- Identify recently licensed vaccines and those in development
- Discuss, network and view poster presentations of current and future recommendations for childhood and adult immunization
- Discover how to incorporate recent developments in immunization recommendations into practice
- Explain how the pneumococcal immunization should be undertaken in the adult who has never had one
- Describe recent changes in the approach to the influenza vaccination
- Examine key issues, safety concerns and questions regarding vaccines in the United States
- Describe the pattern of clinical presentations in the immunocompromised patient and how vaccines work or do not work in this population
- Discuss evidence-based guidelines and recommendations to immunization in immunocompromised patients
- Discuss the benefits and importance of reporting to the Nebraska State Immunization Information System (NESIIS)
- Describe how NESIIS data is being used by public health programs and physician offices
- Explain eligibility requirements for immunization programs managed by the Nebraska Department of Health and Human Services Immunization Program
- Discuss current national and Nebraska immunization coverage rates, challenges and ways to improve rates
- Assess the vaccine-preventable diseases burden and the impact on immunization
- Describe prominent challenges to the ultimate effectiveness of vaccine policy and identify tools and strategies for increasing vaccination rates
- Identify what vaccinations are indicated for young adults prior to college attendance
- Summarize lessons learned in community initiative to Vote & Vax and describe future opportunities to implement influenza vaccine community initiatives in conjunction with voting
- Describe steps clinics take to increase HPV vaccine completion rates
- Describe changes/programs implemented in the Health Department to improve and increase vaccination rates

Kathryn L. White Memorial Seminar

KATHRYN L. WHITE,
MT, RN, BSN

Before passing away on May 18, 2011, Ms. Kathy White was a member of the Immunization Task Force Metro Omaha and a Planning Committee member for the Immunize Nebraska conference. Sadly, on her way to a meeting of the Task Force, she became the victim of a fatal car crash outside of Lincoln, Nebraska.

As the Nebraska Hepatitis Program Coordinator, Ms. White provided viral hepatitis expertise within the Nebraska Department of Health & Human Services over a period of nine years. She acted as a liaison between the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, and the State of Nebraska, ensuring that funding and programs reached the state as needed. Her duties included working with public health and medical professionals to promote education and prevention of viral hepatitis. Ms. White was the co-founder and a member of the Executive Council of the National Nurses Advisory Council for Hepatology.

Appointed to the Steering Committee of the Task Force, Ms. White became a champion for education and advocacy relating to vaccine-preventable diseases. She was the coordinator of the Speakers' Bureau of the Task Force. Passionate and energetic in everything that she did, Ms. White's legacy of education and advocacy relating to immunizations lives on through this conference.

Welcome from the Course Director

MEERA VARMAN, MD, FAAP

Eliminating vaccine preventable diseases in children, adolescents and adults takes the efforts of many. Public knowledge and acceptance of vaccination guidelines begins with healthcare professionals such as you who have chosen to make an impact on patient lives. The 2017 Immunize Nebraska Conference will provide healthcare professionals with the latest information on immunizations for children and adults as well as tools to increase vaccinations and public health partnerships.

Call for Abstracts

The Immunize Nebraska Conference Program Committee invites attendees to submit original abstracts to be considered for presentation as posters at the Immunize Nebraska Conference. The Program committee is seeking to complement a dynamic conference with topics related to education, health promotion or innovative research topics focusing on improving immunization rates among individuals and communities. Posters may have been presented at other conferences within the past year or planned conferences over the next year.

Abstracts will be peer reviewed for outstanding quality and timely content. Posters must be educational and must not promote any commercial product or service. The poster presenter(s) must be registered to attend the conference, with at least one presenter present.

Poster Abstracts are limited to 300 words and should include the following:

- Title
- Author Names, with credentials - please star * presenting author(s) and mark # corresponding author
- Purpose
- Design/Methods (as appropriate)
- Findings
- Implications for Practice

Poster Abstracts should be submitted by the corresponding author (please ID in communication), with contact information (name, email, phone number) to Linda Ohri, at LindaOhri@Creighton.edu no later than 5:00 pm CT, April 15, 2017. Acceptance notification and guidelines for poster preparation will be returned via email by May 1, 2017. For this year's conference, we plan to display posters electronically for both onsite and telehealth viewing. Poster submission requirements will be described further in the acceptance guidelines.

Interactive Audience Response System

We will be utilizing an Audience Response System in select educational sessions to facilitate an interactive learning experience between the speakers and program attendees. Through a wireless handheld unit, speakers will be able to query the attendees with results posted simultaneously. See real time responses to important clinical questions while comparing your opinion with those of your colleagues by participating in these interactive sessions.
